

Home > Economy > Govt needs to set up dedicated fund for capacity expansion of local...

Economy

Govt needs to set up dedicated fund for capacity expansion of local shipyards: Study

ANI 31 July, 2022 09:13 am IST

MVIRDC World Trade Center

Text Size: A- A+

New Delhi [India], July 31 (ANI): The government needs to set up a dedicated fund for capacity expansion of local shipyards which may help local shipyards increase the scale of operation and become globally competitive, said MVIRDC World Trade Center Mumbai after conducting a study to identify sectors where India has made extraordinary progress in exports and where there is still untapped export potential.

