Scholarships at University of Birmingham Dubai

The University of Birmingham Dubai announced scholarships for Indian students domiciled and living in India. The University of Birmingham Dubai adheres to the same teaching standards and values as the Birmingham campus and students receive the same internationally recognised 'University of Birmingham' degree certificate. Once the student has submitted the application and, if they receive an offer from the university, the value of the scholarship will be advised based on predicted grades or on meeting the offer conditions. Applications for Fall 2021 are open. For details, visit <https://www.birmingham.ac.uk/dubai/study/apply/index.aspx> or email dubaiqueries@contacts.bham.ac.uk for scholarship details.

“ MVIRDC World Trade Center Mumbai is named after Bharat Ratna Sir Dr. M. Visvesvaraya, an eminent engineer and architect of modern India. It epitomises M. Visvesvaraya's vision to build a dedicated Center for the promotion of India's international trade at Mumbai, the commercial capital of India. Every year, September 15 is celebrated as the “National Engineers' Day” to recognise his immense contribution. Department of Posts, Govt. of India had also released the First Day Cover and a Commemorative Postage Stamp on the 100th birthday of M. Visvesvaraya.

Set up in 1970 as a not-for-profit company, with the vision to be India's preferred catalyst for world trade development, World Trade Center Mumbai, is today one of the foremost World Trade Centers among 327 WTCs in 90 countries. In 1971, it became a member of World Trade Centers Association (WTCA) New York, a global network, which serves over one million businesses. WTCA is a non-profit, non-political association with the mission “Prosperity through Trade and Investment” and is a powerful global network for promotion of world trade.”
