Dr. M. Visvesvaraya Memorial Lecture

Established in 1970, the World Trade Centre Mumbai was envisioned by Bharat Ratna Sir M. Visvesvaraya, an eminent engineer and architect of modern India. MVIRDC WTC Mumbai was conceived as a premier World Trade Center of Mumbai dedicated to the promotion of India's international trade and industry through research and trade development. In memory of Sir Visvesvaraya, the Dr. M. Visvesvaraya Memorial Lecture is held, wherein eminent personalities are invited to deliver the Lecture on contemporary topics.

WTCA Award of Honour

WTCA Award of Honour is presented to eminent Indian business leaders or organisations for their exemplary contributions to the growth of India's trade and industry. This best represents World Trade Centers Association, New York's Vision of Peace and Stability through Trade.
